SCHOOL HISTORY AND PROFILE
In 1945 an attempt was made to establish a school in Derby. Sisters’ Benedict and Ignatius arrived and after two moves eventually settled in a humble cottage. In 1948 Sr. Benedict opened a Kindergarten on the old convent veranda. In 1953 Father Francis the then Parish Priest asked the Sisters of St John of God to open a school in the galvanized iron church. In 1954 Sr Ignatius returned to Derby to set up her new school with twenty students. The sisters remained until 1988 when the De La Salle Brothers took over the leadership of the school. The first lay Principal was appointed in 1994.

Holy Rosary School, is a Catholic co-educational primary school in the town of Derby, which is located in the Kimberley region, a remote area of Western Australia. The school caters for approximately 185 students from 3 Year Old Kindergarten to Year 6. Holy Rosary is participating in the Australian Government funded “Flexible Literacy for Remote Primary Schools Program” and has entered into a partnership with ‘Good to Great Schools’ (founded by Noel Pearson) to deliver Explicit Direct Instruction in English. Reading Recovery is also offered as a remediation program to support struggling readers in the early years. Nelson Math is also undertaken through the school between the Years 1 to 6.

Aboriginal Teaching Assistants work in partnership with the classroom teachers to provide a well rounded education. The major emphasis in the school is to improve literacy and numeracy standards in partnership with the parents/carers. The school places great emphasis on building a positive relationship with members of the local community.
