

THE COLOUR CRAZE THAT'S SWEEPING THE NATION™

Re: School Colour Explosion

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

What: Holy Rosary is holding a Colour Explosion Run to raise funds for the school.

When: This Friday 13th November at 8:30am at Holy Rosary School.

What I need to bring:

- Students need to wear a white shirt or a shirt that they are happy to get colour powder on to school.
- Change of clothes is required for the students to change back into after the event.

Fundraising and Prizes

- Please make sure that fundraising is either submitted online through the my profile page or handed in the form of cash to the class teacher by this Friday.
- Student prizes need to be selected according to the amount raised.
- Any cash that is handed in needs to be placed into an envelope and must have the child's name and the prize selection clearly marked.

Additional Information:

- Parents/Caregivers are welcome to watch.
- Each participating child will receive a wristband and coloured glasses to wear.
- After the event, students will change and return to class.

Kind Regards,

Kayde Baker

(Event Coordinator)
